Activity 00 - Markdown

This document is a simple example to:

1. Demonstrate what a `.pdf` document looks like when viewed in GitHub, and
2. Provide you with an opportunity to test your Markdown skills!

Your image might not have a Figure number when you Preview it because of how link information displays in Markdown documents.

This image:

- Has a teal background.
- Has red, yellow, and black points.
- Has a "hidden" question mark.
- Was obtained from blogspot (remember to click on the link to obtain the correct page).
